Attire

All dancers/campers are to wear appropriate dance attire, jazz shoes, and all personal items necessary for optimum performance (i.e. towel, water bottle, band-aids, adhesive tape). No shorts, please. All dancers should wear their hair up and tied back. The U-High Dance Team Camp takes no responsibility for lost or stolen personal items, so dancers should not bring any items of great worth. All personal items, such as purses and dance bags, should be brought into the dance studio during practice sessions.

Eligibility

The U-High Dance Team Camp is open to all high school-aged students, incoming freshman through seniors, who are serious about improving their skills and knowledge in dance. The camp is clearly geared to preparing dancers interested in presenting their skills as a Dance Team member.

CampStaff—Camp Director:

Laurie Merriman

U-High Dance Faculty & Assistant Dean in the College of Fine Arts at ISU. Laurie holds a B.F.A. in Ballet & Modern Dance from Texas Christian University and M.F.A. in Performance & Choreography from the University of Illinois at Urbana/Champaign. Laurie has coached the UHS Dance Team since 2003.

Assistant to Camp Director:

Jeremy Thornwell has been an assistant dance team coach for UHS for the past six years. He is from the Chicago area, & attended High School at the Chicago Academy for The Arts studying under the world-renowned choreographer Randy Duncan, and Eddy Ocampo.

Guest Choreographer:

Faith Hagerty began dancing at age five and has been trained in ballet, pointe, tap, jazz, modern, lyrical, and hip hop. In her high school career, she was captain of the BHS dance team and has choreographed for her dance team and for Orchesis for three years. She attended her freshman year at the Relativity School in Los Angeles in their BFA commercial dance program. She is looking forward to another year choreographing for the U-High dance team and hopes to see the team advance to State Finals this year!
